Otto Schultz looks over a memorabilia board on the occasion of the 25th anniversary celebration of the school named after him. He spoke about the unique building design and heating system which makes the facility one-of-a-kind in the state.

Photo by Debra Horn

Melvin Kliment, one of the original teachers who is still teaching at O.H. Schultz Elementary School, this year has his oldest son, Allen, teaching 6th grade right next door. Melvin started teaching 25 years ago, sixth grade in the same room, Room 4, that his son is teaching in today.

Photo by Debra Horn